Deepawali or Diwali is certainly the biggest and the brightest of all Hindu festivals. It's the festival of lights (deep = light and avali = a row i.e., a row of lights) that's marked by four days of celebration, which literally illumines the country with its brilliance, and dazzles all with its joy. Each of the four days in the festival of Diwali is separated by a different tradition, but what remains true and constant is the celebration of life, its enjoyment and goodness.

The children have been making bright and colourful rangoli to celebrate the Diwali festival.

Reminder — Toy Catalogues Fundraiser

Families can buy great quality toys at great prices and all in the comfort of your own home. 20 cents of every dollar spent will be donated back to The Briars. With this credit The Briars can purchase valuable resources for our children. Catalogues were distributed early this term or visit www.parentdirect.com.au or chalk.com.au
